LONDON AIR-MAIL LETTER

Sir Samuel Hoare: Prince Arthur's Dual Role: Betting Book Curiosities: Sibellus
To Visit London: Winning Sequences On The Turf: Sir Charles Peers: Stella Benson's
Diaries

(Special Air Mail Letter)

London, April 25.

SIR SAMUEL HOARE

One of the principal personage concerned in the matter now being investigated by the Committee of Privileges is Sir Samuel Hoare who made his reputation in Mr. Baldwin's two Cabinets as a forceful Air Minister.

Chief of his several big air tours was his Indian flight of 1925, when he inaugurated the Cairo-Karachi section of the route.

One of Sir Samuel's best stories concerns this flight. When Mr.
Baldwin was informed of the departure of the aeroplane, he is reported to have said:
"What with F.E. winning diving competitions in Madeira, and Leo Amery ski-ing in the most mountainous regions in the Alps, and Sam Hoare flying to India, I feel like a circus manager whose performing feats have escaped."

Since 1931 Sir Samuel Hoare has held the exacting post of Secretary of State for India. His remarkable ability in amassing knowledge was impressively displayed last year when he elected to give evidence before the Joint Parliamentary Committee on India Constitutional Reform.

In July his evidence occupied nine sittings or forty hours, during which he answered more than 2,000 questions.
His mastery of his case drew congratulations from his fellow members, and was described by Lord Salisbury as "an intellectual achievement."

PRINCE ARTHUR'S DUAL ROLE

Besides being the guest of honour on Thursday at the annual banquet of the Universal Cookery and Food Association, at Grosvenor House, Prince Arthur of Connaught has also promised to help to receive the guests.

The occasion is something of an ordeal for the chief, because most of his famous conferees in England will be present.

Sir Isidore Salmon is to be in the chair, and Prince Arthur will be supported by the Marquis of Cairbrooke.

Sir Derek Keppel is president of the association.

BETTING BOOK CURIOSITIES

The councillors of Cottingham, in Yorkshire are annoyed to find themselves the subjects of the Englishman's invariable propensity to lay a wager. Odds have been laid on their elections, and they want to have it stopped.

There are perhaps few gamblers to-day of the standard of the bucks and dandies of the eighteenth century, but there are plenty of people who will take a bet on any wayward chance.

Elections were, indeed, a favourite ground for bets at White's and Brooks's Clubs. One finds in White's Betting Book sums from five to a hundred guineas laid on elections—for example, in 1753, 50 guineas to 10 "vt Sir George Saville is not chosen in ye next Parliament for Yorkshire"—upon the fall of Ministries, or upon which of two Church dignitaries wins the race for a bishopric. Perhaps the most mysterious of the many strange entries is:

Mr. Talbot bets a certain gentleman a certain sum that a certain event does not take place within a certain time.

The very first bet is for a hundred guineas, among others on the same matter, that Sarah Duchess of Marlborough outlives the Dowager Duchess of Cleveland.

It is dated 1743, and although the Duchess of Marlborough had been very ill two years before, a number of members evidently had considerable faith in her staying powers.

During that illness, as they had probably heard, the Duchess had lain for hours without speaking, until the physician said, "She must be blistered, or she'll die," when she woke up and said, "I won't be blistered, and I won't die. She did, in fact, live until October, 1744.

GREATEST LIVING COMPOSER

Sibellus may visit London early this summer. He has long promised him to come here when the Finnish Concert Committee has asked him to come here when the Finnish National Orchestra is performing at the Queen's Hall, Sibellus may perhaps be induced to renew his old acquaintance with London, which he has not visited since 1921.

Many people outside Finland consider Sibellus the greatest living composer. His countrymen, I think, are unanimous in considering him the greatest of living Finns.

Nine years ago, when he was sixty, the Finnish Parliament voted him an increase in his pension, amounting to some £500 a year—
a large income in that country—and he was given the highest decoration in Finland. A national subscription was also then raised for him.

Sibellus now composes only at night, "when there is nothing else to do."

"The day is too precious to waste on work" is one of his recent remarks.

WINNING SEQUENCES ON THE TURF

Colombo's eight successive victories are by no means a record.

Is 1906, for instance, the late Lord Wavertree (then Col. W.
Hall-Walker) owned the remarkable colt Polar Star, who started the season by winning at Liverpool in March ended it by taking the Criterion Stakes at Newmarket in October.

Meanwhile, this brilliant colt had remained undefeated in all his races, and with a total of twelve victories he turned out as a three-year-old to win the "Jubilee" Handicap at Kempton under the record burden—for one of his age—of 7s. 12lb.

Thirteen was Polar Star's unlucky number, for in essaying to win the Coronation Cup at Epsom he was last of four behind that great stayer, The White Knight.

SIR CHARLES PEERS

Sir Charles Peers, who retired last year from the Chief Inspec-torship of Ancient Monuments, has the rare distinction, which he will lose next Monday, of being his own colleague as Trustee of the British Museum.

As president of the Society of Antiquaries he has been an ex-officio trustee since 1929, and he was recently co-opted by his colleagues as an "elected trustee" in order to secure his services when he had finished his five years' term as president of the Antiquaries.

Yesterday he was also appointed (this time by the Treasury) a trustee of the London Museum, being already an ex-officio trustee of this museum also. So this week-end he will be his own colleague in two places.

In order to attend the anniversary meeting of the Antiquaries addresses, Sir Charles has had to hurry back from Cyprus, where he has been on a special mission in company with Sir George Hill, the Director of the British Museum, and others to advise on the restoration and care of the island's ancient monuments.

Sir George said that the party were very shocked to find how little interest had been taken by Britain in Cyprus, and attributed the neglect in part to Mr. Gladstone's indifference to a colony acquired by Lord Beaconsfield.

DIARIES FOR POSTERITY

Miss Stella Benson's proviso in her will that her diaries shall not be published till fifty years after her death is in contrast to the unreluctant autobiographical tendencies of the age.

It is in line, however, with the policy followed by the British Museum authorities, who "reserve" other than quite colourless letters to their keeping written by or referring to living people.

It is often erroneously supposed that reservation implies something scandalous. This is not so.

MISS BERGNER'S PROGRESS

The stopping of the run of "Escape Me Never" at the Apollo during Miss Elisabeth Bergner's indisposition is a striking tribute to her art.

It must be remembered, however, that Miss Margaret Kennedy wrote the play with Miss Bergner specially in mind, and Mr.
Cochran's decision is no doubt partly based upon that knowledge.

Had he been at the Apollo on the evening Miss Bergner collapsed, he would have arranged for Miss Betty Lynn, her young understudy, who won high distinction at the R.A.D.A. to take her place for that performance.

Miss Bergner's doctors insist that she must gain weight before she returns to work. She has lost half a stone, a serious matter for anyone whose normal weight is only 7 stone.

There is a recent precedent for the hold-up of the run of "Escape Me Never."

On Sept. 22, 1932, the late Miss Anny Ahlers collapsed at the fall of the curtain in the final scene of "The Dubarry," and the run of that piece was suspended until the 28th of the same month.

On many other occasions, however, Miss Ahlers' understudy took her part.

CABLE NEWS IN BRIEF

A Car For Every Thrifty Workman

Berlin, May 11. Responding the challenge offered in April by Hitler in his speech at the opening of the German automobile exhibition in Berlin, car manufacturers have appointed a neutral committee of experts known as the "association for research and study" which will work out design and technical details of a car to be within the reach of every thrifty workman.

The conditions this new vehicle must fulfil are: four-seater closed car, capable of reaching a maximum speed of 50 miles per hour, costing not more than one thousand marks if made a series of seventy thousand at a time. The average speed when fully loaded to be not less than thirty miles per hour. Naturally, the production of acceptable design is only the first step towards producing the car for market but already leading German factories have notified their eagerness to undertake the manufacture once the technical preliminaries have been satisfactorily settled.—Transocean Kuo Min

ONLY A RUMOUR

Dessau, May 11. A denial was issued on Friday by Junkers airplane works to notices appearing in the Foreign Press declaring that a contract has been signed between the Government of the Province of Yunnan and Junkers for the erection of an airplane factory, laying out landing place and the establishment of an air pilot school in China. Junkers works declares such statements as "fantastic" inventions.—Transocean Kuo Min

IMPORT OF TURKISH ALCOHOL

Istanbul, May 11. The indications that the extradition of Insull by the Turkish Government was made conditional upon special facilities for the import into the United States of alcohol from Turkey by the Turkish Government monopoly, seems forthcoming from the fact that the American firm Agwood has just obtained a permit from the United States to import 30,000 litres of Turkish alcoholic liquors to be the first of a series of shipments to take place frequently in future.—Transocean Kuo Min

DISARMAMENT

Paris, May 11. The opening of the disarmament conference has been definitely set for May 23, according to an official communiqué issued here on Friday, following the resumed conference between Mr. Arthur Henderson and M. Barthou. This agreement between the two statesmen, coming contrary to expectation, will necessitate a meeting of the arms conference bureau on May 28, to prepare the session.

Immediately after the issue of the communiqué, Mr. Henderson left for London.—Transocean Kuo Min

"ALL QUIET"

Rome, May 11. An official statement is to the effect that the state of affairs in Hodeida is quiet. Emir Faisal has arrived in town with troops and gave the Italian and British authorities there full guarantees for the maintenance of order, safety for foreign nationals and their property.

The Italian and British troops have been withdrawn.

Two Italian vessels, "Maniga" and "Azio" previously engaged on research work in Red Sea have dropped anchor close to Hodeida where they will be joined by the torpedo boat "Turbine".—Transocean Kuo Min

AIR TRAFFIC WEEK

Warsaw, May 11. The most conspicuous item on the programme of the ceremony marking the opening of the national air traffic week on Friday was the presentation of a gas mask to President Moscicki by the new founded air and gas defence league, the organisation which took a prominent part in preparing the event.—Transocean Kuo Min

THE TRANSFER CONFERENCE

Berlin, May 11. Though the sub-committees of the transfer conference have continued sitting every day, the work is not yet far advanced to justify the issue of a communiqué.

Friday's meeting will be the last until Tuesday next week, because both the President of the conference, Leon Frasier, and Schacht have to attend the meetings of shareholders and board of directors of the bank for International Settlements which take place in Basle on Sunday and Monday respectively.—Transocean Kuo Min

A CLEAR CUT SHAPE

Berlin, May 11. A new redistribution of administrative competence necessitated by the abolition of the sovereignty of the State of Prussia as an essential part of the Reichs constitutional reform, took on a clear cut shape on Friday with the appointment of Police Chief Daluge to the Home Ministry as head of the newly created Reichs police. Exactly a year ago Daluge was chosen by Goering as chief of all police organisations in Prussia with the special task of purging all institutions of remnants of the Marxist influence. Daluge's new department in the Home Ministry will include authority over all the gendarmerie, municipal police, country police and criminal investigators.

The supreme command of the secret or political police forces in Prussia remains for the time being vested in Premier Goering, though the position of chief inspector has been awarded a fortnight ago to Himmler, leader of the secret police divisions in all other provinces in the Reich.—Transocean Kuo Min

THE "CAIRO" LAUNCHED

Bremen, May 11. A new passenger and freight steamer "Cairo", 3,200 tons, of the North German Lloyd, was christened on Friday by the Egyptian Legation Secretary, Waguish Rastum at the launching. The new motorship will be placed on the Levantine service in the autumn.—Transocean Kuo Min

THE IMAM OF YEMEN

Aden, May 11. A report from Saana states that the Imam of Yemen having apparently brought the Wahabites' advance on the Capital city to a standstill, is making preparations to invade the territory belonging to Ibn Saud. The Imam has called up all available tribes and is now said to have more than 200,000 men. The objective of the Imam's enterprise is Kiyadh, former capital city of Ibn Saud.—Transocean Kuo Min

THE DARLING PRIZE

Geneva, May 11. The first award of the so-called Darling prize for successful research on tropical diseases was made on Friday when the recognition was accorded to the British scientist and physician, Lieut.-Col. Charles Henry James for a new method of fighting malaria first applied by him in 1923.

The Darling foundation will award an annual prize of one thousand Swiss francs using the endowment made by the family of the renowned American research worker who died in 1925 from malaria contracted while experimenting.—Transocean Kuo Min

ANOTHER SESSION

Geneva, May 11. The officiating President of the Council of the League of Nations, Polish Foreign Minister Beck, has convened the fifteenth plenary session of the League of Nations for Monday, September 10 next at Geneva. The only important and interesting item on the agenda is the Polish motion that obligations for the protection of minorities either be made universally applicable or that Poland be freed from their observance.—Transocean Kuo Min

TO TOUR POLAND

Warsaw, May 11. Four hundred French veterans will make a special train trip round all the main cities in Poland, beginning in July. The large-scale welcome prepared by the Polish Government will take place in the new Polish port of Gdynia and the capital city, Warsaw.—Transocean Kuo Min

NEW STEAM MOTOR TRAIN

Hamburg, May 12. The first steam motor train in the world will run on the Luebeck Hamburg railway this summer as an integral part of the usual service. Trials made on Friday resulted in the attainment of a speed of 69 miles per hour. The passenger carriage contains 133 seats. The locomotive develops 300 horse power, using compressed steam generated exclusively with oil obtained from lignite or pitcoke. The train can go forward and back as desired.

This new type of railway locomotive is expected to create considerable work for the speeding-up of the German railway traffic.—Transocean Kuo Min

ANOTHER DRAW

Munich, May 12. After the seventeenth move, the fifteenth game for the world chess championship between Alekhine and Bogolubow was declared a draw on Saturday. The score now stands nine to six in favour of Alekhine.—Transocean Kuo Min

STATUE PRESENTED TO CITY OF INSTERBURG

Koenigsberg, May 12. The newly appointed Reichs minister of science and public instruction, Bernhard Rust performed his last act as Prussian Minister for culture on Saturday by presenting a colossal statue, "Awakened Germany," the work of Professor Seger, to the city of Insterburg, the unveiling of which will take place when the 350th anniversary of the city is celebrated on Sunday.

The huge stone monument represented "German Michael" of a simple working man resolutely crushing in his strong right hand, the symbol denoting subservience of the German labouring class—in the form of a short-peaked cap.—Transocean Kuo Min

LOCAL WEDDING

Bau-Kwan

A wedding of much interest to local medical circles took place on Saturday at the Hop Yat Church, when Miss Kwan Yung-hing, niece of Dr. Kwan Sum-yin, the well-known medical practitioner and Miss Kwan Sum-yin, became the wife of Dr. Bau Tse-tung, Medical Superintendent of the Kwong-Wah Hospital, Kowloon. The Rev. Cheung Chok-lin officiated.

The bridegroom was for many years the Assistant Medical Officer at the Government Civil Hospital. The bride who was given away by her uncle, Dr. Kwan, was attended by Miss Ivy Kwan as bridesmaid, Miss Yung Wai-yei as flower-girl and Master Chan Hing-yu as page boy.

Mr. S. Z. Chong undertook the duties of best man, while Mr. Sun Tak-shan officiated at the organ. A reception was later held at the roof garden of the Hong Kong Hotel, where a large number of friends gathered to wish the happy couple the best of luck. Dr. D. J. Valentine proposed the health of the bride and bridegroom. The honeymoon is being spent at the Repulse Bay Hotel.

CHARGE AGAINST PENSIONER

Sequel To Police Raid At Geylang

Singapore, May 5. Norman Albert Jensen, a Government pensioner and ex-steward of Tan Tock Seng's Hospital, was produced before Mr. N. Grice in the police court yesterday afternoon together with two Hylams on charges relating to counterfeit coins.

The Chinese accused are Pang Teng Pin and Wong See Eng.

All are charged (1) with counterfeiting King's coins, namely, Straits Settlements 20 cents pieces; alternatively, with possession of materials and instruments for purposes of using these for counterfeiting King's coins and (2) with possession of 844 pieces of counterfeit King's coins, namely, Straits Settlements 20 cents coins. The charges were explained to the men, and the court reserved May 28, noon and 2.15 p.m. for the preliminary inquiry into the cases, which are triable by Assize Judges.

Detective-Inspector J. Tolmie pointed out that since the offences with which the men were charged were non-bailable he would oppose bail in all three cases.

The court ordered the accused to be remanded in custody until May 11. At the special request of the inspector, Wong See Eng was ordered to be kept custody, for further inquiries until to-day. The men were arrested in the course of a raid made by Inspector Tolmie on house No. 38, Siong Lim Park, Geylang, on Thursday. Among the articles seized are metal alloys, broken plaster moulds, brushes and coins which have been sent to the Government Analyst for examination.

THE DECLARATION ON CHINA

Sir John Simon's Statement: British Inquiry In Tokyo

(Special Air-Mail Service)

London, April 24. Sir John Simon made a statement in the House of Commons on the recent Japanese announcement of policy in regard to China. Replying to a question whether the Foreign Office had received notification of Japan's intention to redefine her policy in the Far East with the object of claiming a controlling voice in China, he stated that he had received no such intimation from the Japanese Government. He had, however, received from the British Ambassador in Tokyo the text of a translation of an informal verbal statement made to the Japanese press by a spokesman of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

TEXT OF STATEMENT

The statement which appears in the Official Report of the House is as follows:

Owing to special position of Japan in her relations with China her views and attitude respecting matters that concern China may not agree in every point with those of foreign nations; but it must be realized that Japan is called upon to exert the utmost effort in carrying out her mission in fulfilling her special responsibilities in East Asia. Japan has been compelled to withdraw from the on fundamental principles of preserving peace in East Asia. Although Japan's attitude towards China may at times differ from that of foreign countries such difference cannot be evaded owing to Japan's position and mission. It goes without saying that Japan at all times is endeavouring to maintain and promote her friendly relations with foreign nations, but at the same time we consider it only natural that to keep peace and order in East Asia we must even act alone on our own responsibility, and it is our duty to perform it. At the same time there is no country but China which is in a position to share with Japan the responsibility for maintenance of peace in East Asia.

Accordingly, unification of China, preservation of her territorial integrity as well as restoration of order in that country, are most ardently desired by Japan. History shows that these can be attained through no other means than awakening and voluntary efforts of China herself.

We oppose, therefore, any attempt on the part of China to avail herself of the influence of any other country in order to resist Japan; we also oppose any action taken by China calculated to play one Power against another. Any joint operations undertaken by foreign Powers even in the name of technical or financial assistance at this particular moment after Manchurian and Shanghai incidents are bound to acquire political significance. Undertakings of such nature, if carried through to the end, must give rise to complications that might eventually necessitate discussion of problems like division of China which would be the greatest possible misfortune for China, and at the same time would have most serious repercussions upon Japan and East Asia.

Japan therefore must object to such undertakings as a matter of principle, although she will not find it necessary to interfere with any foreign country negotiating individually with China on questions of finance or trade as long as such negotiations benefit China and are not detrimental to peace in East Asia.

However, supplying China with war aeroplanes, building aerodromes in China, and detaching military instructors or military advisers to China or contracting a loan to provide funds for political uses would obviously tend to alienate friendly relations between Japan, China, and other countries and to disturb peace and order in Eastern Asia. Japan will oppose such projects.

Foregoing attitude of Japan should be clear from policies she has pursued in the past, but on account of the fact that positive movements for joint action in China by foreign Powers under one pretext or another are reported to be on foot, it was deemed not inappropriate to reiterate her policy at this time.

DANGERS TO PEACE

April 24. Sir John Simon went on to describe the statement as having been apparently inspired by "an apprehension of certain dangers to peace" to good relations between China and Japan, or to the integrity of China, which might follow from certain action by other Powers in China. None of these dangers was to be apprehended from the policy of his Majesty's Government, which aimed in effect at avoiding them. On the other hand, the general character of the statement was of a nature which had made him think it necessary to communicate with the Japanese Government with the object of clarifying the position of his Majesty's Government.

Pressed to say whether he was in communication with the Government of the United States on the subject, Sir John Simon refused to make a further statement, although he agreed that it might be desirable to make one later. He described his action as the sending of "a friendly communication" to the Japanese Government.

TRAINING GALLOPS

Full Particulars Of Saturday's Gallops

(BY "MORNING DEW")

With the full programme of Saturday's racing published last week, the training times appearing below will be of more than usual interest.

Australian ponies were sent to much faster work than is usually the case during training, and we should see some very good times recorded at the fifth extra. One of the ponies which moved very well was Dinty.

Helman covered a fast mile and it looks very much as if this pony is due a win very soon.

The Redshank, Soldier of China, Ribble and Prima Donna were among the others which moved well.

HONG KONG YOUTH

Commits Suicide In Macao

A message from Macao states that during the week-end, a Chinese youth of Hongkong committed suicide by taking a dose of opium in a Macao Hotel.

According to the register of the Tung Tin Hotel, it appears that the deceased signed his name as Ho Yan, aged 17 years, no occupation, a resident of Hongkong.

It is reported that the deceased left nothing in the Hotel, except a rotten basket, which had been taken possession of by the Macao Police Headquarter for further identifications.

FILMS AT THE POLO CLUB

Bangkok, May 2.

A member of the audience forwards the following account of last week's entertainment at the Riding and Polo Club:

On Wednesday evening about one hundred and fifty members and their friends had the pleasure of seeing a number of cinema films which were shown by Mr.
Gordon Burt of the Asiatic Petroleum Company, Singapore, who was engineer to the British Arctic Expedition of 1925, under Commander F. W. Worsley, D.S.O., R.
N.R. The first reel was composed chiefly of scenes in and around Singapore, and many members must have recalled only too vividly the pleasant days they spent bathing from the beach at Changi.
Never again will they be able to repeat these pleasures as we understand that practically the whole stretch of beach has been taken over by the military authorities.
The second reel was particularly appropriate to the Polo Club as it showed a number of Italian cavalrymen on what was described as a cross-country ride, but which must have appeared to many as a series of almost impossible circus feats. It was a most enlightening film, and demonstrated particularly well the practicability and actual advantage of the "forward seat" which for so many years in England has been regarded as suitable only for the show ring, but which at last is being adopted even in the most conservative of all sports—the hunting field.

This film was followed by the official film of the British Arctic Expedition of 1925. It was a strong contrast to find ourselves sitting in the open under a tropical moon at the height of the hot season and at the same time looking at pictures of mile upon mile of ice. It must have been even a stronger contrast for Mr.
Burt, who was re-living those six months which he spent on the good ship Island in the ice-bound seas surrounding the North Pole. Mr. Burt and his fellow explorers to be congratulated not only on the valuable scientific data they were able to obtain but also on the choice of their photographer.

The final film was composed of various scenes of yacht and motor boat racing at Long Island.

"THE MATCH KING"

Coming To The Queen's

Immediately upon the heels of the most amazing international financial swindle in modern business history comes First National's dramatic picture "The Match King," paralleling in screen drama the astonishing story one man's skillful manipulation of matches into a colossal bubble that broke only when general business depression revealed the crookedness of the financial machinations.
Seldom has the screen offered a more dramatic subject than "The Match King," played by Warren William. Never has an actor had a "fatter" part than the title role.
Out of this real life world-catastrophe, Author Thorvaldson and adapters Houston Branch and Sidney Sutherland have concocted an intensely dramatic screen play.

"The Match King" is the story of a man whose power and ambition raised him from a Chicago street-sweeper to a world financial power stop a pyramid of credit, built on the ruins of other lives.
It is the tale of a financial Jugernaut which once started could not be stopped until it brought the financial world crashing down about its creator's ears. It is the story of a man who was as ruthless in love as in finance but who learned, to his sorrow, that a reckoning was inevitable in either.

Warren William, whose work in "The Mouthpiece" and "The Dark Horse" made him one of the most popular bright lights among the newer stars, plays the title role.
Lili Damita, petite and intriguing, is equally vital to the story as the one unattainable objective in the "Match King's" life.

Here is a picture of epic proportions, told against a setting of lavish elegance. Here is realistic super-drama of the modern age which races in breathless suspense from one great city to another, from one European throne room to the next. Contrasting with the crushing, dominating power of its principal theme is the development of a tender love story, which threads its way through the whole of the powerful drama.

"The Match King" is perhaps the most important picture of the present season. The story of the rise and fall of Paul Kroll, the man who dealt in billions and whose word swayed national decisions, holds the fascination of being so near to the truth that it hurts.

Damita, Glenda Farrell, Juliette
Compton and Claire Dodd all share in the wearing of gorgeous gowns created for this picture.
Hardie, Albright, Harold Huber, Spencer Charters and numerous

For the first time in history THE KING OF BEASTS BATTLES THE MONARCH OF THE JUNGLE

In murderous frenzy the lion and the tiger struggle... dagger-like teeth bite savagely... claws like tempered steel rend living flesh... to settle the age-old question "Which is king?"

DEVIL TIGER

ASIA'S FIERCEST JUNGLE BEASTS CLASH IN MORTAL COMBAT!!!

Directed by CLYDE E. ELLIOTT
director of "BRING 'EM BACK ALIVE"

"DEVIL TIGER"

Real Jungle Thriller

The gigantic task of editing the 700,000 feet of film of "Devil Tiger," Fox Film's sensational animal-adventure picture, which was nearly a year in the making in the Asiatic jungles, has recently been completed. It is now the feature attraction at the King's Theatre.

It was in October, 1932, that Clyde E. Elliott, who directed
"Bring 'Em Back Alive," left Hollywood with a cast headed by Marion Burns, Kane Richmond and Harry Woods, and started for the other side of the world. A year later he returned and started the arduous job of editing miles of wild animal fights and other thrills down to 7,000 feet.
"It is the first time in the history of sound pictures that a screen drama has been made in its entirety in the virgin jungles of Asia.

"We spent a whole year on the job, but the results prove that we were justified," declared Elliott. "It was not a case of throwing animals into a pen and making them fight. We had five cameras, a specially constructed sound unit, and we stationed our cameramen in steel cages at the spots the animals frequented.
Then we waited for the clashes."

"It took three weeks to get our elephant stampede in northern Siam. We spent a week getting the tiger-crocodile battle in India.
More than 25,000 feet of film were exposed in shooting this fight which was made with the aid of artificial lights. The fight started shortly after dark and lasted for six hours. Four cameras were operated on the battle."

"It took us several days to get a scene showing a black panther chasing a baby elephant, with the elephant falling into the game-bunter's net trap, and thus escaping the panther. Sometimes we would have a great scene almost within our grasp, only to have the tropical torrents spoil our chances."

"But in the end, we got what we went after. There's a fight between a black panther and a crocodile, a water buffalo and a python, a man and a python, a tiger and a lion, a Malayan bear and a hyena, and many more."

Elliott believes this production will prove a long step toward the often-discussed idea of sending complete filming units, including Hollywood casts, to far corners of the world to make productions in their entirety.

Filming of the picture carried the company, plus its crew of 150 natives, into India, Siam, Indo-China and Malaya. Six tons of equipment were carried.

"THREE- CORNERED MOON"

With Claudette
Colbert

Claudette Colbert, who, with Richard Arlen and Mary Boland, is starred in "Three-Cornered Moon," which will open on Tuesday at the King's Theatre, once discovered that it doesn't pay to jest unless willing to keep the joke rolling.

It was a joke that started her on her stage career and keeping that joke rolling has been a serious job that has taken her to the top of the screen heap.

The "joke" was this: Several years ago she was an art student in New York. At a tea she met Anne Morrison, the playwright of "Pigs."

Jokingly, Miss Colbert said: "You should put me in your next play." Shortly after, Miss Morrison called her and put her in the cast of "The Wild Westcotts."

Miss Colbert now calls that a "nice little part" but it was pretty big to her then. To get her next role, she claimed two years of experience and became leading woman in "The Marionette Man." But so capable was her performance that no one suspected the fib.

She made one silent film but didn't really take much interest in pictures until talkies came in.
Her first roles were in "The Hole in the Wall" and "The Lady Lies."

In her most recent Paramount picture, a B. P. Schulberg production, "Three Cornered Moon," Miss Colbert is seen as a member of the harumscarum family which, for the first time, learns the meaning

GARBO AGAIN

Another Triumph For
"Greta"

"Queen Christina," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's much-discussed historical epic, that serves as the reunion of Greta Garbo and John Gilbert, after a screen separation of five years, received an ovation befitting the queen that Garbo portrayed when it opened on Friday simultaneously at the Queen's and Alhambra Theatres.

It presents a Garbo more beautiful and more alluring than ever seen in her previous pictures, possibly because the making of this picture has been Garbo's dream for many years.

Not only has the picture excellent performances by a dozen or more seasoned and talented players, but "Queen Christina" brings to the screen many of the most beautiful camera settings seen recently in any photoplay.
The costuming, likewise, is revealed as one of the most thorough and colourful tasks ever injected into any picture project.

It is the story Garbo has wanted to make since she began her film career—the only story, perhaps, that could bring her back to the screen from her two years' virtual retirement in the seclusion of her Stockholm home.

LIONEL ATWILL

In "Secret Of The Blue Room"

You have thrilled to the fleshdevouring fiend of "Doctor X"— you have been chilled by the evil creatures of "The Mystery of the Wax Museum"—you have gazed at the snarling antics of an overpowering Mr. Hyde.

Now you are to have, Lionel Atwill in his most harrowing of all "screen" thrillers, Universal's "Secret of the Blue Room," which is the next change at the Alhambra Theatre.

Imagine an old, musty, castle.
Imagine a sinister master of the house, a beautiful girl, a newspaper reporter, a youth desperately in love and a handsome Marine officer, all hopelessly entangled in a web of unseen death all striking blindly at a lurking something that seeks to destroy them, one by one.

But for an even greater thrill imagine such stars as Lionel Atwill, Gloria Stuart, Paul Lukas, Edward Arnold and Onslow Stevens in the principal roles of this picture—which also includes William Janney, Elizabeth Patterson, Muriel Kirkland, and James Durkin among its players.
Kurt Neuman, the European master of the mystifying, directed the film, and that famous expert of screen photography, Charles Stumar, handled the cameras.

OLD BANISHEE RETURNS

Arrested And Sent To Gaol

An old Chinese named Wong Tai Kow, a returned banishee, pleaded guilty before Mr. Lee, at the Kowloon Magistracy on Saturday morning, on a charge of returning to the Colony before the term of his banishment had expired.

The accused was banished from the Colony on the 4th October 1933 for a period of years, and was arrested in Shanghai Street, Yau-mat, by a Chinese detective last Friday evening.

When questioned, the defendant told the Court that he returned to the Colony to ask a friend for some money and clothes. A sentence of eight months' hard labour was passed.

THEFT OF RADIATOR CAP

Chinese Gets Six Months' Gaol

Before Mr. Lee at the Kowloon Police Court on Saturday morning, a Chinese named Wan Choi King, described as unemployed, was charged with theft of a radiator cap from a motor-car, which was parked in Gascoigne Road, Yau-mat, shortly after 11 p.m. last Friday night.

It was stated that the accused was arrested in Wing Sing Lane, with the article in his possession. The defendant pleaded guilty and was sentenced to six months' hard labour.

HOUSE OF ILL FAME

Several Chinese Kept in Fined

As a result of Police raids on Friday night, four Chinese, two men and two women, appeared before Mr. Lee at the Kowloon Magistracy on Saturday morning on charges of keeping sly brothels at No. 171, Woo Sung Street, 2nd floor and No. 30, Shanghai Street, ground floor, Yau-mat.

The Police stated that during the raids, all the defendants tried to escape.

The defendants pleaded guilty and a fine of $250 or three months' hard labour each was imposed.

Orders for the immediate clearing of the prostitutes were also made.

Wong Sing and Ip Mo Lo, were fined $2,000 each by Mr. Hamilton at the Central Magistracy on Saturday, when they were convicted of being in possession of 140 taels of opium on board a junk in the harbour on Friday last. A third man was discharged. Revenue Officer, A. W. Grimmett prosecuted.

GRADUATION OF NURSES

Addition To Alice Memorial Hospital Staff

The Ying Wah Girls' College Hall, Bonham Road, was the scene of much rejoicing on Saturday when the graduation ceremony of the Alice Memorial Hospital Nursing Class was held.

Mr. R. M. Gibson, F.R.C.S., of the resident medical and surgical staff of the Alice Memorial and Affiliated Hospitals presided. After a brief address to the graduates by Miss Shin, the certificates were distributed by Mrs. Well.

Matron's Report

In the course of her report, Miss M. Ward, the matron of the Hospital, said:

"To-day is Florence Nightingale's birthday; that is why we have chosen to-day for our special Nurses Re-Union and Graduation Day."

"Nurses in the West look upon Florence Nightingale as the pioneer of nurses' training. There is no doubt that the standard to which nursing has been raised as a profession has been raised as a result of her great opposition."

"Most of the hospitals in China where nurses are trained for the Nurses' Association of China have chosen this day for their annual graduation, and as each year comes around they are reminded of the great pioneer of their profession."

The Graduates

The following were the graduate nurses: Yip Kuk-ping (Honours), Lam Woon-king (Honours), Ng Kong-sheung, Ho Chung-fong, Yung Yuk-ching, Kay Lai-wan, Lam Hau-kin, Yung Kwai-ying and Lei Mo-ching.

All graduates also obtained the certificate of the Hong Kong Midwives' Board.

Leung Mun Ko, a shop-keeper was fined $100 by Mr. E. W. Hamilton at the Central Magistracy on Saturday, for bringing into the Colony unmanifested cargo of 251 taels worth of silver bars by the s.s. On Lee. The silver was ordered to be forfeited. Ho Siu Fook and Yeung Chung, who were similarly charged in respect of four bags of silver, also came before Mr. Hamilton. The former was discharged on a lack of evidence while the latter was remanded one week.

PO PU TICKETS

Mr. Macfadyen at Central Magistracy on Saturday imposed a fine of $250 on Lau Sam-mul, a widow, for being in possession of 423 "po pu" lottery tickets in Pottinger Street.

Another woman, Leung Ah Yuen was fined $75 for being in possession of 114 "po pu" tickets.

For stealing two hives of bees from Holy Cross Path, Sai Wan Ho, Shauiwan, two Chinese youths were each sentenced to three weeks' hard labour by Mr. Hamilton at Central Magistracy on Saturday.

A successful plea of ignorance was made by Cheung Yuen, a 24-year-old unemployed, before Mr. Macfadyen Central Magistracy on Saturday when he was charged with uttering a forged $10 Mercantile Bank note, and with being in possession of a forged bank note.

Defendant pleaded that he had obtained the note from a money changer in Canton and that he had no knowledge that it was a forged note.

He was arrested while attempting to tender it at the To Sang Tong, a Chinese medicine shop at No. 7, Wu Nam Street.

A fine of $50 or, in default, one month's hard labour was imposed by Mr. Macfadyen at Central Magistracy on Saturday on Chan Ping-sam, a servant boy for robbing his employers, the Mecca Silk Store, of a silk handkerchief, a pair of silk pyjamas and five yards of silk.

Sergeant Guld said that defendant was arrested while he was in the act of stealing the piece of silk. A search in his living quarters revealed the remainder of the stolen goods.

Mr. Rama, of the Mecca Silk Store, stated that several petty thefts had occurred during the month the defendant had been employed in the store.

CAR PARKING IN CITY

Pedder Street Again As Stand

Regulations regarding the use of car parks and further amendments relating to parking areas in the City were announced in the "Government Gazette" of Saturday. The public car stand in Charter Road, between Ice House Street & Statue Square, is to be eliminated by degrees, and Pedder Street is to be used as a private car park.

The 28 public car stands in Charter Road between Ice House Street and Statue Square are to be reduced to 20 during 1934, while in 1935 only 10 public cars will be permitted to stand there. At the end of 1935 the whole of Charter Road will be devoted to the parking of private cars, with the provision that between Ice House Street and Des Voeux Road, Central, only owner-driven cars will be allowed to park.

The following regulations regarding the use of car parks have been issued.

"The use of car parks by any person and for any purpose shall be under the control of the Inspector-General of Police."

"Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing regulation it shall be lawful for the Inspector General of Police to do all or any of the following acts and things:

1. "To maintain order, and the orderly arrangement of motor vehicles in car parks.

2. "To direct the position and vehicles.

3. "To direct any alteration of the position of a parked motor vehicle, and make or cause to be made such alteration.

4. "To restrict or prevent the cleaning, repairing, keeping in good order, or otherwise servicing of any motor vehicle within the car parks, or any of them.

5. "To prevent pedestrians and any other persons who are not in or upon any car park as drivers or passengers of or in a motor vehicle which is or may lawfully be parked there from entering or remaining within the car park.

6. "To grant and renew permits to any particular persons or the employees of any person, society or association, to be within the car parks, or any of them, for the purpose of cleaning, repairing keeping in good order, and otherwise servicing the parked motor vehicles."

7. "To attach to any permit referred to in this regulation such conditions as he may deem expedient, and

8. "To carry out and effect the control of car parks or any of them by any officers or members of the Police, or by any automobile association, and the employees of such association, but so that permits referred to in this regulation shall only be granted or renewed by officers of the Police Force having the rank of Divisional Superintendent, or a superior rank, and that the term or period of grant or renewal shall not exceed one year."

"Every person shall, duly comply with the directions and orders given him by the Inspector General of Police, or by the police, or by the authorised employees of any association referred to in the foregoing regulation, pursuant to this group of regulations."

ANOTHER MONSTER

Whale Caught Off Izu On Japan Coast

Tokyo, May 3.

On April 29, a monster whale was found entangled in a fishing net off Izu, Shizuoka Prefecture. Forty fishermen bound its tail with a rope and tried to drag the victim ashore, but could not do it because of desperate struggle put up by the whale. Finally three men armed with knives jumped into the water with the intention of stabbing it in the heart, when one of them was whipped by the tail and sent flying several feet. As the unconscious body of the unfortunate fisherman was picked up from the sea, his ribs were found fractured.

Finally, however, they succeeded in landing the animal, which measured over 30 ft. in length and weighed about 3,500 pounds. Needless to say, they celebrated the catch that evening in a befitting manner.

EUROPEAN Y.M.C.A.'S FIRST GALA

Keen Competition In Handicap Events

The first monthly swimming gala of the European Y.M.C.A. proved an unqualified success last Saturday night, when some very keen competition was witnessed and several good times were returned by the ladies and men.

One could not expect too much in "good times" at the beginning of the season, but those returned were extraordinarily good, H. G. Lange recording 28 seconds in the Men's 50 Yards Aggregate Handicap, winning his heat after conceding 7 seconds to A. Mitchell.

Mrs. Schreuder, the Y.M.C.A. Ladies Champion, was also in good form despite the fact that Saturday night was her first swim in five months. She returned the time of 32 seconds in the Ladies 50 Yards Aggregate Handicap, although she lost the race to Miss Ann Fowler, who won the Ladies Aggregate trophy last year.

S. Fowler, the holder of the J. R. Wood Cup for the Men's 50 Yards Aggregate Handicap, looks like retaining the trophy yet, another year as a result of a win in the second heat of the event, when he won by a narrow margin from C. Higgins.

In the Men's 50 Yards Breast Stroke Scratch race, Reggie Wood caused a surprise when he beat George Fowler comfortably in 36.2/5 secs, leading all the way from the start. Fowler won last season's Breast Stroke event but is sadly lacking in practice. He however, gave Wood a good race.

The Novelty Race which comprised of the men carrying a box of matches and a candle one length, helping their lady partners light it at the other end, for the latter to swim back, caused much amusement. Mrs. M. Read and W. G. Jenkins winning easily, while Miss J. Wilson and H. G. Lange were a good second.

Mixed Relay.
The Mixed relay proved a great attraction and although the result was never in doubt, the losers put up a very plucky showing. Reggie Wood making up a little of the large deficit for the losers in the last length.

Mrs. Read and Mrs. Schreuder went off together in the first length, Mrs. Schreuder giving her team a slight lead, but Miss Fowler made up for the deficit with a burst of speed to give Goldman's team (the losers) a slight lead. The lead again changed hands when G. Fowler overtook Jenkins to give Schreuder a substantial lead over R. Goldman, the latter being unable to make up on the former who gave H. G. Lange a large lead, which Reggie Wood however, cut down in the last length although comfortably beaten.

The last event on the programme, the "water-polo" was a very evenly contested game although very scrappy. Schreuder, the "Y's" former skipper of Water-Polo scored the only goal, and was not allowed to do as he pleased, W. F. Kerr, the "Y's" new skipper defending well. The first half opened well but Kerr's team was unable to score although Goldman and Kerr had several shots at goal, Webb saving well on each occasion. In the second half, Schreuder broke away and scored for Lange's team with a fast back-hander which had S. Fowler well beaten.

After the gala, dancing to the strains of Mr. Stott's Band was indulged in until midnight, a large gathering attending.

MOTOR MISHAP IN KOWLOON

Boy Knocked Down

According to a police report, Mr. W. J. Woolley residing at No. 3 Jordan Road, top floor was involved in a motor accident yesterday.

In his statement to the Police, Mr. Woolley stated that at 7.30 in the morning he was driving private motor car No. 1064, along Nathan Road towards Austin Road and while passing President Apartments, a little Chinese boy crossed the road in front of his car and was knocked down, the left front mudguard striking him.

The boy refused hospital treatment.

CANTON DAY BY DAY

Canton, May 12.

Mr. Hsiao Fu Chen, a member of C.S.C. and the South-west Political Council, who accompanied by his son sailed back to Canton from Siam on 4th inst. is expected to be due in Swatow this morning and arrive at Hong Kong to-day.

The South-west Executive Committee of Kuomintang and the South-west Political Council and various public organizations have sent representatives to the island to welcome him.

The Provincial Department of Finance has ordered the Imported Agricultural Products Tax Bureau to start collection of tax on imported sugar on May 11.

Regulations governing the procedure of collection and rates have been promulgated. The rates vary from 7 1/2 to 1 per cent. on the value of the sugar.

Telegrams circulated by public bodies pledging support to the South-west leaders policy and urging the Central Government to send a punitive expedition against Pu Yi have been successively pouring into this city since his enthronement. Those received here yesterday were despatched by the Chi Chien County Tangpu, Wu Hwa County Tangpu, and Kai Ping County Tangpu.

A service to commemorate the prohibition of opium smoking will be held on June 3. The Provincial government has ordered various pacification commissions to make preparations.

The sugar refinery in Pait Village, Fah Hsien County, which was established by overseas Chinese who returned to this province from Formosa after the outbreak of the Sino Japanese hostilities in Shanghai, is now doing business very prosperously, according to the report of the agricultural students of the Chungshan University who just returned here from a visit to that refinery.

The area of the field leased for plantation of sugar canes is over 1,000 mu. Of the whole area, 400 mu have been cultivated.

The refinery is situated in the centre of the field. The machinery, worth $40,000, was made in this country. The quantity of sugar produced per day is 10,000 catties.

In order to strengthen local defence in those recovered territories in Kiangsi, General Li Yang Ching, Commander of the 3rd Army Corps and concurrently Commander of the 2nd Expedition Column of the South Route Bandit Suppression Forces, has organized a Communist-Bandit Suppression Volunteer Corps for the three localities, namely Tsuenmanling, Chien-wu and On-yuen. Lam Chok Huen has been appointed as Commander of the Corps. The headquarters is in Chien-wu.—Central Press.

General Chen Chi Tang gave a letter to militia of this province yesterday encouraging to exertion in performing their duty. The important points General Chen stressed in the letter are to observe military law and to be loyal public servants; to strengthen local defence; to focus attention in the work of training; to protect the people; to assist the people in productive undertakings; to pay attention to improvement of the health of the public; and to co-operate with one another in the work of defence.

BITTER CONTEST BEHIND THE SCENES

Fight For Supremacy Between Returned Students

Nanking, May 1.

The appointment of Dr. C. T. Wang to the Foreign Office portfolio, to relieve Mr. Wang Ching-wel, who is preoccupied in other national affairs, has been reported in political and diplomatic circles. (though there is no official confirmation forthcoming yet).

According to those who are well versed in Chinese political and diplomatic events, the present crisis is the result of a bitter struggle between two factions of returned students, namely those educated in America and European countries and those educated in Japan. Each of these groups has been exerting its utmost to establish supremacy in diplomatic circles. The Japan-educated politicians are in favour of an alliance with Japan, to oppose the aggression of the Powers of the West, which they contend is the only course left open for the salvation and reconstruction of the Republic. They are trying to ride roughshod over the majority opinion, which is anti-Japanese, since the forcible occupation of Manchuria, and to come to a compromise with the Japanese, with whom they are in close touch.

Influenced by the Japanese advocacy of "mutual subsistence and mutual prosperity" they are becoming more and more open in their condemnation of the policy of depending on the League of Nations and signatories of the Nine-Power Treaty for settling Far Eastern affairs, especially as the Western Powers are preoccupied with their own domestic problem.

This faction has been able to gain ground to a certain extent in North China, and with the backing of their Japanese friends they are advancing all sorts of industrial and economic co-operation schemes as a feeler to sound public opinion.

"Bolsterous Statement"

The Western returned students are very firm in their attitude in advocating procrastination and obstinate resistance against Japan.

ese Imperialist aggression and in denouncing all pro-Japanese moves which are termed treachery. They are in favour of co-operation with the League of Nations and America and Soviet Russia and their schemes, which receive the general approval of the people, are meeting steady success.

It is against such that the latest bolsterous statement of the Japanese was directed.

According to the general tendency of the people, this faction has better chances of success, though the pro-Japanese partisans, backed by the intimidation of the militarists of their ally, may be able to secure the upper hand temporarily in certain circumstances. Intelligent and unbiased observers deplore the struggle between the two factions as most destructive and damaging to China, especially the actions of the pro-Japanese politicians in invoking foreign assistance in forcing their policy upon the people.

It is pointed out the salvation and reconstruction of China lies absolutely on the shoulder of her own people independently, and the success of neither of the two factions will be beneficial to the nation. With an imminent crisis now threatening it devolves upon the people of the whole country to rise up and accept the task themselves, though in certain cases advice of friendly Powers in technical matters may be of valuable service.

The attitude of General Chiang Kai-shek and Mr. Wang Ching-wel, who are the reigning powers to-day, towards the two factions is ambiguous. It was first reported that the pro-Japanese faction had won by the acceptance of their plans, but later it was rumoured that owing to the bitter opposition of the Southwestern leaders, the Government hesitated again and has not been able to decide definitely what is to be done. Consequently the movement of General Huang Fu is still uncertain.—Asiatic.

WALKER CUP GOLF

Another Triumph For America

London, May 12.

America retained the Walker Cup defeating Britain for the eighth consecutive time.

Owing to drenching rain, a small crowd to-day saw the Americans push home their advantage of 3 matches to 1, as the result of the foursomes yesterday, by winning six of the eight singles matches played at St. Andrew's and halving one of the remaining two games to win the contest by 9 1/2 to 2 1/2.

The results were as follows: Goodman (U.S.) beat Scott 7 and 6.

Little (U.S.) beat Tolley 7 and 5.

Oulmet (U.S.) beat Crawley 5 and 4.

Dunlap (U.S.) beat McLean 4 and 3.

Fischer (U.S.) beat Fiddian 5 and 4.

Torrance (Britain) beat Marston 4 and 3.

Moreland (U.S.) beat McKinlay 3 and 1.

Westland (U.S.) and McRuvie were all square.

The Americans showed a better standard of play, and were, if anything, more skilful, in spite of wet conditions to which they were unaccustomed.

Leonard Crawley's putting was deplorable. The Hon. Michael Scott had exceptionally bad luck, when he was stymied at the eleventh, twelfth, and seventeenth holes.

J. McLean sunk a glorious 20-foot putt at the sixth hole for a "birdie," but Dunlap, by steadier play, was 3 up at the fifteenth.

Goodman Brilliant

After losing at the 19th where the three putted, Scott fought back and won at the 20th and 21st, but thereafter he was unable to match the brilliance of Goodman.

In the dramatic finish to the Westland-McRuvie match, the American player led by 1-0 up to the 38th, McRuvie, however, quitted him by 50 yards and was four yards from the pin with his second stroke. Westland missed a two-yard putt.

Tolley after being 0-3, squared at the 12th with a streak of brilliance, but subsequently he was erratic.

Torrance virtually settled the match against his American opponent by winning at the 10th, 11th and 12th holes.

At the end of the first eighteen holes the scores were:

J. Goodman (U.S.) led Hon. M. Scott 2-0.

THE ACCUMULATOR REVOLUTION!

It has happened! For nearly fifty years, accumulator design has stood almost still. Now it has been changed at a stroke! The cumbersome glass box so familiar to you with its load of heavy "plates" is obsolete at last. In its place—a simple cylinder of lovely bakelite, plate-less, almost unbreakable, and in relation to size and weight, of almost double the ampere-hour capacity! Yet the cost is little more. Everywhere, in thousands and thousands, the new accumulator is taking the nuisance out of battery-operated wireless. Get a BLOOM accumulator to-day from:

MORE ABOUT QUOTAS

In another column will be found an official communique from the Hong Kong Government regarding the question of quotas. His Majesty's Government has decided that it is not a practical line in Hong Kong. We ask in all sincerity for an assurance from the authorities that this step will not deprive us of any of the advantages we might gain from the Ottawa Conference. We submit that the public has a right to know this since it is a matter which concerns not only the business interests of the Colony but which might have repercussions at a later date.

Our attitude with regard to quotas has been amply demonstrated and as we have stated, we do not advocate in any shape or form the introduction of quotas which might interfere with the Colony's transit trade or shipping interests, which admittedly are most important to us, but we submit that there are other sections of the community whose interests must be considered, and we would ask if every section has been consulted in this matter?

While on this subject we would cite the following extract from an address by Sir Samuel Wilson, Permanent Under-Secretary of State for the Colonies 1925-33, at the Royal Empire Society at the beginning of the year.

"My connection with the Colonies has not made me any less than I was before, a firm believer in the 'personal touch'; and I am more convinced than ever that the less high officials in the Colonies sit at their office desks, and the more they get about their Colonies, and while meeting people, see things for themselves, the fewer will be the difficulties with which they will be confronted. An overseas constitution that on paper may appear unworkable can very often be made to function quite well if the proper atmosphere exists, that is if the relations between officials and unofficials are what they ought to be."

We feel sure that few can quarrel with Sir Samuel in the advice he has so admirably expressed. One portion of the commercial interest of any Colony may hold one view, but as is sometimes the case, quite the opposite view may be held by those engaged in other important trades and their views should be ascertained on all matters where the decision of the authorities would affect them.

There are a large number of people, who, if they have not made their homes here, have invested their savings in local companies, and therefore have more than a passing interest in the Colony. Their views, which we feel sure could be easily obtained, should be given consideration and carefully weighed.

We maintain further that a practical way of keeping the Colony's money within the Colony is to make business men here feel that their views do carry weight with the authorities and that they are part and parcel of the Colony's economic life.

By dint of a tremendous effort the administration of the Straits and Malaya have extracted themselves from the grip of a very bad depression. Already we are told a shortage of labour exists there and this may mean that a number of Chinese from South China will be once again going down to the Straits to meet their labour situation, and the remitting of money home to their families will benefit the Colony. While the Straits deserve the greatest admiration for what they have accomplished, we in this Colony must take advantage of every little turn in the tide, so as to enable us to sail in smooth waters once again.

One interesting matter that should, in our view, be immediately taken up, is the question of ascertaining what unemployment there is in the Colony, or conversely, how many men are employed? This may seem at first sight a difficult—if not impossible—question to answer, but as the answer would reflect whether or not we in Hong Kong are on the up or down grade, every effort should be made to obtain this information. We understand the Government has sent round a questionnaire to all factories and workshops in Hong Kong but the most important detail, that of how many men are employed, appears to have been left out from the questionnaire. If this information was sought and statistics compiled monthly—or at any other regular interval—a very valuable piece of information would thus be made

OBITUARY

Mr. William Corey

New York, May 12.
The death has occurred of Mr. William Ellis Corey, former President of the United States Steel Corporation, at the age of 68.

Entering the chemical laboratories of the Edgar Thompson Steel Works at the age of 16, Mr. Corey went to the Homestead Steel works in 1887, becoming superintendent of the plate mill in 1889 and superintendent of the armoured plate department in 1893. Four years later he succeeded Mr. Charles M. Schwab as general superintendent.

His first executive position came in 1901, when he was appointed President of the Carnegie Steel Company. From 1903 to 1911 he was president of the United States Steel Corporation.—Reuter.

Mrs. A. Brearley

The many friends in Hong Kong and South China of Mr. A. Brearley, former Manager of the Chartered Bank in Hong Kong, will learn with much regret of the death of Mrs. Brearley, which occurred in England on Thursday last.

Mrs. Brearley who had been a resident of the Colony for seven years, was well-known in charitable circles and for her church work, where she will be sorely missed. She had been in bad health for some time, and her passing was therefore not altogether unexpected.

The news of her death was received in Hong Kong on Saturday by cable.

HEAVY RAINS IN CANTON

Narrow Streets Flooded

(From Our Special Correspondent)

Canton, May 13.

Several of the narrow streets in the low lying area are flooded today by two to three feet owing to continuous rainfall, which has been falling heavily since last night.

Several houses in the slums districts in the northern outskirts of the city collapsed this morning, as their foundation was weakened by the heavy rains. About eight persons were injured. These houses were either too old or built with very cheap materials.

The rain is falling so heavily that the gutters in the narrow streets simply cannot drain it. Choked by refuse, the rain water remains and turns the streets into canals. The residents in Upper Western Suburb were rudely awakened this morning by the rushing water which shook their wooden beds.

Chickens, rats and pigs were drowned in the inundated streets. The sewage is in good condition, but after fifteen hours of continuous raining the amount of water fallen is really too much for the small drains.

It is feared that the foundations of the many old houses were sapped by the rainfall and may collapse. Poles and scaffolds are used to support these buildings.

The principal roads are not affected by the downpour, and traffic is going on as usual. The Canton River and the streams winding through the city rise almost to bank level with a yellowish appearance.

The rain water has created a strong current in the river, and small boats practically suspended business. River steamers and tow-boats have to proceed very slow in the rapid current.

SIR EDWARD ELGAR LEAVES £13,934

available to the authorities and business men.

We conclude with the hope that if the last word has been said about quotas, that the authorities obtain from H.M. Government at Home the assurance that this will in no way penalise our young industries in Hong Kong from obtaining any advantages that may accrue from the Ottawa Conference.

If Gossip We Must

(By Frudence)

The Annual Tennis Tournament of the Hong Kong Cricket Club has dragged on longer than ever this year, and public interest, (at first keenly aroused) has almost fizzled out!

All attempts at a concerted finish for the different events has been long since abandoned. Instead of a formal prize-giving the cups for the different events are just handed over, at any odd moment (with or without an audience) to the winners who have been persevering enough to play through the necessary rounds to finish.

Mrs. F. A. Joseph in Repulse Bay

The success of the Rodger brothers last Saturday proved a most popular win, and it was a pity that so few people witnessed the match. George and Jack Rodgers are well-known locally, and they put up a splendid fight against two strong Army representatives (Captain Cannon and the Rev. Lewis Bryan) in three very interesting sets.

Since Handicap Events have been spun out until May, it seems a pity that the Open Events also could not have been played out over a longer period. Not for years has the Colony had such a magnificent all-round player as Mr. Duff. He was a hot favourite for the Men's Singles, as well as, with his partner Mr. Sullivan, for the Men's Doubles. Yet, just because Mr. Duff had a business call up North for a few short weeks, he was obliged to scratch in both events although he was actually back in Hong Kong before the end of the Tournament. Since such Unimportant events as the Mixed Doubles etc. have been indefinitely prolonged to suit the convenience of ordinary players, it seems odd (to say the least of it) that the rule of prompt play was so rigorously enforced, when (for once in a Blue Moon) a really brilliant player chanced this way.

"LATE NIGHT" AT THE HOTEL.
There was a "late night" at the Hong Kong Hotel last Saturday and we were all allowed to stay up an hour longer than usual—and very nice too—why not make these extensions more frequent since they are so much appreciated?

But even the extra hour did not quite satisfy—and after the last dance everyone began to clap and stamp so vigorously to the rhythm of that potent tune: "She didn't say yes. She didn't say no" that the band simply had to relent, and play one last dance before God Save The King brought the festivities to a close. Spectators were rewarded by the vision of a great many pretty frocks last Saturday.

Mrs. Edgar Davidson looked particularly charming, all in white satin and chiffon, and was with a large party which included the Commodore and Mrs. Elliot (the latter looking awfully nice in a gown of flowered georgette with a little coat of cherry velvet), Dr. G. D. R. Black, and Mrs. Black (wearing a delightful shade of Damask-rose) and several others.

Red of every hue was much in favour on Saturday night. Mrs. Bousfield wore an attractive Holly-red, Miss Lloyd was vivid in scarlet. Mrs. Goldman chose crushed-strawberry, with a quaint collierette of a darker shade and Mrs. Sugars was wearing crimson.

Green is a good colour too, at this time of year. I thought that Miss Dunnett looked rather like a wood-nymph, in her frock of frilly green, and I liked the checked organdie worn by Miss Thomas. Mrs. Bishop wore emerald green crepe-de-chine with just a little velvet at the waist and shoulders. (She is one of the Colony's hockey experts, by the way.)

Miss Eve O'Hagen was most alluring in a lace dress of cafe-au-lait, with a sash of soft brown satin. Whenever I see her, I feel sure that Miss Audrey Steele is not very far away and sure enough I soon discovered her looking very smart in electric blue, with floating draperies lined with a darker colour. The same rule applies to those "two pretty girls" Miss Evelyn Humphreys and Miss Lammert. Where one goes, there you will probably find the other. Miss Humphreys was enchanting in pale green organdie, with pink velvet rose-petals cunningly hidden among its folds, while Miss Lammert was very fresh and dainty in pale turquoise-blue.

AFTER THE PICTURES.

Miss Stevenson looked very sweet in sapphire satin with clasps of diamante, and Miss Rosemary King was there—lovelier than ever in a very simple dress of snow-white muslin with harlequin spots, which suited her perfectly. Miss Cooper, too, looked her loveliest in white satin and silver.

Quite a lot of people came along after the pictures. (I expect that they needed a pick-me-up.) I noticed Mrs. Grossman looking rather French and very sparkling, all in black and white with a little black hat, while Mrs. Andrew Shields wore turquoise blue with a picture hat of white.

"Summer is A'cumin' In" (as the old song says) and with it two new fashions, more bizarre than seductive. One is the mode of toe-less sandals—the other the cult for short black kid gloves with a sleeveless dress. Do we like them? To which the answer is that "some do and some don't." Personally I think that if the wearer has absolutely exquisite feet the former are just (but only just) bearable. While if the wearer has milk-white arms and dimpled elbows it is possible that short black gloves may draw attention to them. Since my first name is Frudence, I absolutely refuse to say who wore these new fashions, and who did not. PARAGUAY AND BOLIVIA HOSTILITIES

Nations To Blame For Its Continuance

ARMS SUPPLY CONDEMNED

London, May 13.
An indirect suggestion that the Gran Chaco war between Paraguay and Bolivia will cease immediately if other nations stopped the supplying of arms to belligerents was made in the report of the League Commission appointed to investigate the dispute, the British member of which was General Alexander Robertson.

The report which is one of the most forceful documents ever issued by the League, points out that American and European countries are supplying the most up-to-date armaments to both belligerents who do not produce armaments in any quantity themselves, and declares that the only hope of an effective settlement is more efficient collaboration of the League with the United States and South American countries in order to end a war which is "singularly pitiless and horrible," and which owing to wounded soldiers, is infecting the whole of the districts with malaria, and it is a fact that the youth of both nations is being wiped out. "It represents a veritable catastrophe to the advance of civilisation in that part of America," the report adds.—Reuter.

Paris, May 12.

A trade treaty was signed on Friday between the French and Brazilian Governments whereby all exceptional restrictive measures taken by either country during 1933 will be repealed. Each country grants the other the right to import at the lowest customs rates on the schedule. France grants Brazil a special import quota of five thousand tons of coffee monthly and increases in the existing quota for certain other Brazilian products. The treaty also contains detailed provisions affecting the transfer from Brazil of certain frozen French commercial claims.—Transocean Kuo Min.

DR. RACHMANN AND JAPAN

London Press Opinion

London, May 12.
Japan is understood to be bringing pressure on members of the China Committee of the League of Nations to procure the dismissal of the League adviser to China, Dr. L. Rachmann, states the "News Chronicle" in a leading article, today.

A study of his report shows the hollowness of the Japanese claim that the assistance given to China by the League of Nations has been "political" in any sense, except that it does certainly assume that a strong, prosperous and independent China is desirable, the journal adds.

Dr. Rachmann's unforgivable offence in the eyes of Tokyo is that he believed this and worked for it honestly and unsparingly. There is no other accusation which can be brought against him with any plausibility, the journal asserts.—Reuter.

IN DEFENCE OF GOVERNMENT

French Statesmen Speak Out

(Special to "Hong Kong Daily Press")
(By Telegraph, Copyright, Telegraphic Messages Ordinance, 1894. Received, May 13, 7.30 p.m.)
Paris, May 13.

M. Chaumets, M. Daladier and M. Herriot spoke loud and clear against their opponents at the National Convention of the Radical Socialist party and reaped generous applause.

The ex-Premier Chaumets firmly answered protests concerning his membership in freemasonry with a declaration that he would not turn back on society to which he owed his entire education. He exhorted his party to take steps at the next session of the Chamber to insist on wide open trade.

He defended the bitter attacks made regarding the Government's alleged inhuman handling of riots in February. He declared that the best proof that no order had been given to the Police to shoot was that only sixteen men, instead of hundreds were felled by the bullets.

Another statesman went a step further than M. Chaumets in demanding that the Radical Socialist party should fight for the complete dissolution of the organizations of the Right, which are known to be so heavily armed.

At the close of the Convention, its president, M. Herriot eloquently defended the present coalition Government, forcefully emphasizing there will be no alteration in the Cabinet nor in the contemplated programme and winning the majority vote of the party for the Government and National Union and for "confidence in self."—Transocean Kuo Min.

COMPLAINT FROM HUNGARY

Asks League To Intervene

(By Telegraph, Copyright, Telegraphic Messages Ordinance, 1894. Received, May 13, 4.30 a.m.)
Geneva, May 12.

The agenda of the League of Nations Council meeting beginning on Monday has been supplemented by a motion of the Hungarian Government demanding that the League of Nations send a commission of investigation to enquire into incidents which occurred in the last few months along the Hungarian-Yugoslavian frontier.—Transocean Kuo Min.

MORE SERIOUS GRIEVANCES.
Geneva, May 13.
Hungary greatly surprised the diplomatic world by registering at official complaint with the League against the Yugoslav action on the frontier for several years past, which has occasioned the deaths of a dozen Hungarians.

The Yugoslav quarters make light of the complaint and say they have much more serious grievances against the Hungarians.

The matter will be entered upon the provisional agenda at the forthcoming session of the Council which opens on Monday.—Reuter.

QUOTA AGAINST JAPAN

Counter Measures Contemplated

Tokyo, May 12.
The Japanese Foreign Office has published a 2,000-word review on the Japanese viewpoint on the Anglo-Japanese trade negotiations.

After outlining all the documents exchanged, the review concludes:—"The Japanese Government are minutely observing the nature of the action thus taken by the British Government unilaterally and without negotiations between the two Governments."

"They are studying carefully and calmly the bearing the action will have on trade and other relations, and are also considering the necessary counter-action to be taken."

"It goes without saying that the Japanese Government intend to safeguard fully the rights and interests that Japan possesses under the various Treaties involved."—Reuter.

"Not Practicable"

The following communique is issued by the Colonial Government:—

WAR DEBT REVISION

America Willing To Enter Discussions

Washington, May 12.
It is authoritatively stated at the White House that the United States is willing to enter discussions in regard to war debt revision with individual nations, but will refuse to join in any general debt conference.

Despite authoritative information given out that several debtors have been informed that token payments will no longer ensure exemption from the provisions of the Johnson Act, President Roosevelt still feels that the United States has not laid down a rigid policy on this matter.

He has indicated that part payments will be given full and sympathetic consideration and that all offers will be considered on their individual merits.—Reuter.

BUDGET SURPLUS CRITICISM

London, May 12.
Referring to the American criticisms of Britain's budget surplus, the Foreign Secretary, Sir John Simon, in a speech at Manchester, yesterday, said that irresponsible commentators on the other side of the Atlantic had overlooked the fact that their argument, based on the Budget surplus, was entirely fallacious for two reasons as far as the American debt was concerned.

Firstly, because that which lay at the back of the difficulty in connection with vast international payments was not a question as to whether a particular country had a Budget surplus, but was the injury done to world trade and world recovery as a whole, if they contemplated the transfer of enormous quantities which they received in goods, but which they were asked to pay back in money.

Secondly, it must be borne in mind that in relation to national wealth, British taxation last year was at least twice as heavy as the corresponding taxation in the United States.—Reuter.

CUNARD-WHITE STAR MERGER

New Company Registered

London, May 12.
A new company under which the North Atlantic fleets of the Cunard and White Star lines are merged was, according to Jordan's list, registered on Thursday. It is titled Cunard White Star Ltd. and address Cunard Building, Liverpool.

The nominal capital is £10,000,000 in £1 shares of which 62 per cent. is to go to Cunard and 38 per cent. to White Star.

The object of the company is to acquire all or any of the interests in the North Atlantic shipping trade formerly belonging to Cunard Company and Oceanic Steam Navigation Company. The general outline was given in Commons last February of a scheme by which it had been possible to reach agreement with Treasury under which subject to certain arrangements Government would make advances to provide for completion of Cunard liner Number 534.—British Wireless.

THAELMANN TO BE TRIED

Herr Ernst Thaelmann, the former leader of the German Communist Party, is shortly to be tried in Berlin for high treason and alleged complicity in political murders.

DUTCH RUBBER PRODUCTION

Scheme to Protect Plantations

The Hague, May 12.
It is understood that a temporary export duty on native rubber production is to be imposed by the Government of the Dutch East Indies, with the object of enforcing a distribution quota between plantation and native production.

"The Government is" resolutely determined to enforce the International Agreement and not to allow the native growers to endanger restriction to the detriment of plantation interests.—Reuter.

CONTROL IN GERMANY

Berlin, May 11.
A new office for the control of dealings in rubber has been established at Hamburg under Herr Erick Hammersfahr, who is responsible to the Minister of Commerce, who will regulate the supply and distribution of rubber, gutta-percha, and rubber waste.

The control of raw material imports is necessary owing to the precarious foreign currency position, and thus includes raw materials for the textile, copper, hides and skins, and rubber industries.

The 1933 value of rubber imports amounted to only £1250,000 at par. Imports for the first three months of 1934, in anticipation of rubber restriction, have already reached £2500,000.—Reuter.

TANGKU TRUCE REPORT

China Denies Firing

Peking, May 12.
The Kwantung Army's warning, accusing China of frequent breaches of the Tangku Truce, has aroused surprise in Chinese circles here owing to the complete absence of Sino-Japanese tension in China apart from the belief that the Japanese insist on an early settlement.

The Chinese point out that no Chinese troops remain in the demilitarised area and that the Japanese reports of firing on Japanese troops from Malanpu lack conviction.

Despite the warning, the Japanese appear to have made no preparations for any action, and the general belief here is that the warning is part of the general Japanese policy of impressing the need for expediting the settlement of the remaining problems in North China.—Reuter.

U.S. SILVER BILL

Agreement On Its Phraseology

Washington, May 12.
An agreement on the phraseology of the American Silver Bill was reached at a conference between the Treasury Secretary, Mr. Henry Morgenthau and the Senate silver advocates.

Mr. Morgenthau, according to one of the conferees, consented to a mandatory declaration of policy, that silver be made a monetary base with gold.

He wants first to submit it to President Roosevelt.

The conferees, including Senator Borah, are optimistic that very little controversy is left.—Reuter.

FINANCIAL AID SOUGHT

For Industrial Development

(From Our Special Correspondent)

Canton, May 13.
Merchants in Canton and Hong Kong are interested in the industrial developments in Kwangsi and Kwelchow and will shortly take a trip to those provinces with a view to making investments.

An official of the Kwelchow Department of Reconstruction is here to study the municipal and reconstruction progress in Canton. In an interview, he said that he is also interested in bringing merchants from Canton and Hong Kong to visit Kwelchow, which is rich in agricultural products and mining deposits.

Though rich in these natural resources, Kwelchow is not a wealthy province and requires capital and engineering skill from Kwangtung to develop the mines and industries. There were repeated civil wars in that province in the past, but now all is quiet in the Kwelchow front.

About twenty leading merchants of this city and Hong Kong will leave here for Kwelchow on May 15. After inspection, they will form a big company to develop mining and agricultural possibility in Kwelchow.

The party will pass through Kwangsi, where they will also inspect the industrial and reconstruction movement on foot. Kwangsi expects Shanghai than

LONGSHOREMEN COLLIDE WITH GUARDS

Riotous Behaviour At American Ports

New York, May 12.
Striking longshoremen were involved in serious fighting in a number of ports.

At Galveston, Texas, one was killed and another wounded when longshoremen came into collision with guards of the Clyde Mallory Line. Three guards were subsequently arrested and charged with murder.

San Francisco longshoremen and non-unionists fought a gun battle, fortunately without casualties. The strikers attacked five negroes and overturned a motor car.

At Portland Oregon, the State Governor is considering a request to call out the National Guard followed a riot wherein longshoremen stormed a steamer and attacked a policeman, some of whom they threw overboard.—Reuter.

DUST CLOUD IN AMERICA

China Starts Well In The Olympic Games

PHILIPPINES WIN BASEBALL AND TENNIS MATCHES

Sato And Yamada In Brilliant Form With Racket

The Tenth Far Eastern Olympic Games opened in Manila on Saturday with the record number of athletes from China, Japan, the Philippines and the Dutch East Indies participating, and at the end of the day's sport, the Chinese community in Manila were frantically celebrating China's excellent opening. They won the football match against the Philippines, scoring twice without any reply while in the basket-ball match they won comfortably against Japan.

The Philippines were successful in their tennis engagement against the Dutch East Indies and in baseball they more than made up for the defeat in football at the hands of China by winning 2-1.

Japan gave a dazzling display in their tennis engagement against China and judging by the form displayed by the exponents of the game, representing the four competing countries, it appears that the men from the Land of the Rising Sun will sweep the board so far as tennis is concerned.

Manila Chinese Celebrate Frantically

China won 2 and lost 2 events in the spectacular opening of the Far Eastern Olympic Games here to-day.

The Chinese foot-ballers crashed through to a brilliant 2-0 win over the Philippines, while the Chinese baseball and tennis teams bowed to defeat.

In the midst of colourful opening ceremonies, in which China led the parade of competing Nations, Dr. C. T. Wang briefly addressed the crowd, which was estimated at over 20,000, declaring that China was committed to the highest principles of international sportsmanship, but was handicapped at present by internal strife.

Governor General Murphy, and Mr. Quezon, President of the Senate, also spoke.

The newly built Stadia which was completed just in time for the Olympic Games was filled to capacity.

One Member of the Chinese Delegation, fainting because of the heat and was assisted from the grounds.

An immense ovation was given to the Chinese teams by the large local Chinese population.

The Chinese foot-ballers gave a magnificent exhibition of sturdy defence and powerful attack, although the first half of the game was scoreless. Tam Kong-pak scored from a smart angle shortly after the opening of the second half. The remainder of the game was hard-fought, China's second and final goal coming as a result of a brilliant effort by Lee Wai-tung.

The China tennis team succumbed to the superior match experience of the Japanese. Sato of Japan beat Khoo Hoo-ke of China by 6-0, 6-4, 6-0. Yamada of Japan beat Khoo-sen of China by 6-3, 6-4, 6-4.

Meanwhile the Philippines beat the Dutch East Indies at tennis.

The Philippines beat Japan at volleyball, winning by 21-18, 18-21, 21-7, 21-14.

China Routed At Baseball

The baseball match between China and the Philippines resulted in the complete rout of the Chinese team, who were unable to withstand the terrific onslaught of the Philippines team. Chang, Herbert Lee, Joe Kau and B. Chang successively pitched for China, but all were equally unsuccessful.

The final score was Philippines 25 runs to China's 1 run, which was made by Joe Yee.

Three Chinese hurlers were knocked from the box, one after another, in the course of rallies in which the Philippines turned eighteen hits into twenty five runs while the Chinese were not able to score. The Philippines scored five in the first innings, one in the second and fourth, four in the sixth, eleven in the "big" seventh and three in the ninth. Bautista, the Filipino pitcher, split his finger when attempting to stop a "daisy-cutter" and was forced to retire in the third.

The Chinese basket-ball team over-whelmed the Japanese team by a score of 42 to 27. It was a beautiful game and was not marred by any personal foul-ing. The Chinese team were finding the basket consistently, while their sturdy defence was remnant of American college games and kept the opposition from the scoring zone. At the end of the first half, the Chinese led by 18 to 7 and were never seriously threatened. Wai Tee-wong was high scorer for China, tallying 12 goals, 9 goals each were scored by C. Y. Yu, and Pee Fong.

Wai Tee Wong was forced to retire shortly before the final whistle owing to a sprained ankle. His injury is not serious and he will be playing again.

American observers noted the fast pace set up by the Chinese quintet and the relatively small use of dribbling for offensive and all passing work which proved very effective.

The local Chinese community is frantic with joy at the victory of the Chinese teams both in football and in basket-ball and is wildly celebrating this evening.

CHINESE GIVEN HUGE WELCOME

Throng Jams Water-front

Manila, May 9.

A crowd, estimated at about 5,000, jammed the upper passageway and the lower portion of Pier 7 yesterday morning to welcome the Chinese delegation to the Far Eastern Games. The delegation arrived on board the American Mail liner President McKinley amid thunderous applause from the Chinese crowd. The welcome accorded the Chinese delegation was one of the most impressive ever witnessed in the waterfront.

The whole Chinese community seemed to be on hand. Chinese school girls wearing uniforms brought bouquets. Chinese boy scouts and their band of music gave colour to the reception. In addition there were two bands engaged for the occasion. The cream of the Chinese community was represented by the consul general, prominent Chinese businessmen and Miss Clara Tan Kiang, Miss Philippines of 1934. Miss Tan Kiang headed a group of young Chinese women who welcomed the athletes.

Wang Pleased

The Chinese delegation, headed by Dr. C. T. Wang, former minister of foreign affairs of the Chinese government, left the ship at about 10:30 to stage an impromptu parade around Pier 7. The delegation next was rushed to Malacanang palace where its members paid their respects to the Governor General's representative. They then went to the City Hall where they visited the mayor and afterward to the Ayuntamiento. The rest of the morning was spent on sightseeing trips around the city.

Dr. Wang told the press that he was glad to return to the Philippines after an absence of seven years. He said he appreciated the opportunity accorded him to renew old friendships and acquaintances. He also extended greetings from the Chinese government to officials of the Philippines and of the United States. He said that the delegation is ready to show the best of its ability and that it will cooperate heartily with officials of the Olympic games towards the success of the meet.

Big Delegation

The delegation is composed of 29 officials, 15 guests, 18 baseball players, 12 basketball players, 17 football players, three shooters, 11 swimmers, four women swimmers, seven tennis players, 29 track and field athletes, 18 volleyball players and 15 women volleyball players. There are 23 girls in all; they are to take part in volleyball swimming and tennis.

Athletes Start Training

The Chinese delegates to the Tenth Far Eastern Olympics got busy yesterday afternoon immediately after their arrival here. After parading around the city and "making calls" on important government officials, they repaired to De La Salle College where the male athletes are now quartered, while the women members of the delegation went to the Philippine Women's University where they will stay during the Olympics.

Marvel At Rizal Field

The Chinese athletes and officials visited the imposing structure of the Rizal Memorial Field, inspecting all sections of the field where the big games are to be staged. They appeared pleased with the lavish entertainment accorded them by their countrymen who are residing here and by the officials of the Philippine Amateur Athletic Federation. They marvelled at the imposing structure of the million-peso stadium.

Members In Good Health

Every member of the Chinese athletic delegation appeared in excellent health, fit and ready for the big games which will commence on Saturday afternoon. The coaches of the different athletic teams reported their proteges in fine shape and they expressed confidence of winning in many events.

Officials Give Lineups

Officials of the delegation submitted the official list of entries for China to the P. A. A. F. officials. Chinese officials in track and field, tennis and swimming attended various conferences held in the officials of the P. A. A. F. and took a hand in drafting the schedules for these events.

The Chinese baseball nine has its first workout in the baseball stadium yesterday afternoon. The team strutted good baseball stuff and thrilled the fans with their smooth work on the field. This outfit will bear watching during the meet.

Confident of Soccer Win

The Chinese soccer officials are confident of winning the football championship. China has done this in the past olympics and they see no reason why the Chinese soccerites should not maintain their superiority in this branch of athletic competition. The Netherlands Indies football team may give the Chinese a strong battle for the championship. Chinese football officials claim that the Java dribblers play a fine brand of football and they expect strong competition from them during the olympics.

Wang Will Be Feted Tonight

Manila, May 9.

Dr. C. T. Wang, internationally well known as China's former minister of foreign affairs, who arrived in Manila yesterday morning at the head of China's delegation of athletes, will be the guest of honour at a banquet to be given tonight by K. L. Kwong, Chinese consul general in the city.

The banquet will be held in Mr. Kwong's residence on Wack-Wack

Hayden, Senate President Manuel Quezon, Speaker Quintin Paredes, Senator Sergio Osmena, and a few prominent Chinese residents like K. Y. Mok, vice-consul, Alfonso Sy Cio, president of the Chinese chamber of commerce, Albino Sy Cio of the China Bank, Dr. Manuel Nubla and others have been invited.

Consul Kwong and Vice-Consul Mok showed great satisfaction yesterday over the arrival of the Chinese athletes, who will represent China in the Far Eastern games opening in Manila next Saturday. They were with Dr. Manuel Nubla, chairman of the reception committee, at Pier 7 early in the morning to welcome Dr. Wang and his delegation.

As when the Japanese delegation arrived, the Chinese contingent paid their first respects to Senate President Quezon, president of the Philippine Amateur Athletic Federation, by calling at the legislative building, then to Mayor Tomas Farnshaw in his office at the City Hall and finally to Governor General Murphy by calling at Malacanang. The delegation was given loud cheers along the streets through which it passed at it went to make its calls. The Governor General and Mr. Quezon were in Bagulo at the time and their respective representative received the callers.

Dr. Wang, head of the delegation and at the same time president of the China National Athletic Federation, issued the following statement last evening:—

"The Chinese delegation to the Tenth Far Eastern Championship Games desires to express its most sincere appreciation of the warm reception accorded it on its arrival. The fact that so many thousands have come to Pier 7 gives a good deal of encouragement to our athletes and we trust that their support will be given continuously during the meet. We have taken quite a representative team, athletes drawn from all parts of China. We believe that they will do their best to uphold the spirit of sportsmanship.

"We also wish to express our deep appreciation to the Philippine Amateur Athletic Federation for the careful preparations that it has made in accommodating our athletes. We are sure that the P. A. A. F. must have spent a good deal of time and money in the preparation of this meet, and we sincerely trust that the meet will be a complete success. As this is our Tenth Meet of the Far Eastern Athletic Association, it shows that it has had hearty support of all its members. And we further believe that this spirit of co-operation for the promotion of sports will be continued in the future.

The next meet is scheduled to be held in China. We take this opportunity to extend our cordial invitation to the member countries of the Far Eastern Athletic Association. By next month China will commence work on its new stadium in Shanghai. We believe that it will serve as a fitting home for the next Far Eastern games."

HOME CRICKET RESULTS

Hendren Scores 135 Against Australians

The Australian's had their first test on Saturday when they were engaged by the M.C.C. at Headquarters, and at the end of the day's play the home team were in a strong position, having lost seven wickets for 341 runs.

M.C.C. v. AUSTRALIANS

Pat Hendren Again

Patsy Hendren, the Middlesex batsman and hero of many a stern battle, showed that despite the fact that he is getting on in years, he has lost none of the skill that stamped him one of the country's most aggressive bats in post-war years. He made 135 runs, hitting a six and seventeen boundaries, and delighted the spectators with some hooks and drives. Bob Wyatt, who is looked upon in some quarters as the ideal choice for England's captain in the coming Tests, batted well to score 72.

At the close of play on the first day, M.C.C. had scored 341 for 7 wickets.

LESSON SERMON

First Church of Christ, Scientist

"Adam and Fallen Men" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday May 13th.

The Golden Text was: "As in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive" (Corinthians 15:22).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness; and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth. So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them. . . . And God saw every thing that he had made, and, behold, it was very good" (Genesis 1:26,27,31).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The name Adam represents the false supposition that Life is not eternal, but has beginning and end; that the infinite enters the finite, that intelligence passes into non-intelligence, and that Soul dwells in material sense; that immortal Mind results in matter, and matter in mortal mind; that the one God and creator entered what He created, and then disappeared in the atheism of matter" (p.580).

WOMAN SENT TO PRISON

For Using Abusive Language

(By Telegraph, Copyright, Telegraphic Messages Ordinance, 1894. Received, May 13, 4.30 a.m.)

Berlin, May 12. Frau Olga Seegerbrecht, aged 54, wife of a pensioned schoolmaster, appeared before a special court on Saturday to answer a charge of having used abusive language on October 15 last towards the agent of the "Winter Help Fund" who called to collect voluntary contribution. The accused is said to have used the following words: "I won't give a single farthing to this labourers' State. These people are not workers. They are black-mallers."

Seegerbrecht denied having used the words but witnesses were forthcoming. The court considered that the expression constituted an insult both to the agent and to the present regime. But having regard to the sex, age and nervous condition of the accused, the court agreed to take a lenient view of the offence by passing a sentence of six months only. Transocean Kuo Min.

MORE MOTOR VEHICLES IN BERLIN

(By Telegraph, Copyright, Telegraphic Messages Ordinance, 1894. Received, May 13, 4.30 a.m.)

Berlin, May 12. The number of motor cars and trucks in Berlin which rose more than seven thousand in the month of March made another jump of 7,768 during April, according to figures published on Saturday.

The Berlin Press attributes the continued increase as due to Government measures for the popularisation of the motor car, these steps including the abolition of taxes both on new and traded-in cars, and as marking a definite end to the crisis in the German motor industry.

The total of motor vehicles in Berlin now is 114,317 but on the basis per head of the population of the German capital, it is still behind ten other large cities in Germany. No immediate abatement in the rate of sales is expected. Transocean Kuo Min.

DEFAMATION OF GOEBBELS

Jewish Official Arrested

(By Telegraph, Copyright, Telegraphic Messages Ordinance, 1894. Received, May 13, 4.30 a.m.)

Berlin, May 12. The Secret police have arrested a Jewish bank official named Dr. Jacob Wassermann, according to an official announcement made on Saturday. The offence was "systematic defamation of Minister Goebbels." The communication announces that the culprit will be at once delivered to the concentration camp at Oranienburg, "where he will have sufficient time to think over the manner in which the guest of the German people should conduct himself in Germany." DEFENCES IN KWANGTUNG

Bond Circulation Withdrawn

(From Our Special Correspondent)

Canton, May 13. Further circulation of the $30,000,000 military defence bonds will be suspended after May 15, because its time for circulation expired on April 15, according to an official notification.

The bonds were floated on April 14, 1932 and were to have been exhausted by April 15, 1933. As the demand was not brisk, the period of disposal was extended for another year, that is to April 15 this year. Therefore those bonds which remain unsold will be withdrawn after May 15.

While the official statement did not state to what extent the bonds had been disposed of, it was learned that the amount sold is about $12,000,000. In the past, the bonds were disposed of by 20 per cent. on all taxes. In other words, a taxpayer who paid $100 to the government had to pay an extra $20 in military defence bonds.

Now that these bonds are withdrawn, it is reported that the Provincial Department of Finance will float new bonds for aerial defence of Kwangtung and Canton in particular. It is said that the new bonds are limited to $10,000,000.

GLASGOW CUP FINAL

Another Triumph For The Rangers

London, May 12. Glasgow Rangers, winners of both the Scottish League and Cup, beat the Celtic by a goal to nil in the Glasgow Soccer Cup Final today. Reuter.

SECOND DAY'S RESULTS

Manila, May 13.

China had some bad going in the second day of the Olympic games, winning only the Volley Ball against Japan and losing the other contests. The weather cleared allowing all the contests to be held.

In the Volley Ball, the Chinese team bitterly contested every inch of the game and eventually emerged victorious by 21 to 21, 21 to 13, 16 to 21, 21 to 10 and 21 to 14.

The Japanese team entered a formal protest alleging that the Chinese contingent had violated and made a substitution of the rules, but the complaint has not yet been decided.

The Chinese Girls' team lost in a close contest to the Philippine Girls, the scores being 21 to 13, 21 to 10 and 22 to 20.

In the Tennis matches, the Chinese double players, Khoo and Kuo, lost to the Japanese pair, Sato and Yamagishi, by 6-3, 7-5, 6-2.

Meanwhile, the Philippine pair defeated Java, Zamora and Diy outclassing the Hoerip Brothers by 6-1, 6-5, 6-8, 7-9, 6-2.

The Chinese Baseball contingent was again ignominiously defeated, the Japanese overwhelming them by twenty points to one. China's lone tally being scored in the sixth inning by Matty Chang.

The final scores were:—
R. H. E.
China 1 3 3
Japan 20 14 3

Japan, likewise, bowed to two bitter defeats in the course of the day's events, the Java Football team being much too strong for the Nippon players and handing them an easy pasting by seven goals to one. Java was not extended in this match, causing the spectators to believe that the final contest between China and Java would produce an exciting game.

The Japanese Basket Ball team again bowed to the Philippines, who administered a smashing defeat by 51 goals to 35, causing the belief that the finals of this event will lie between China and the Philippines.

A local flurry was caused by the Japanese delegation who surveyed the running track and found it to be eight millimeters short of the regulation distance. They, therefore, threatened to withdraw from the running events, but the matter was eventually settled amicably.

The local papers are amusedly commenting on the importance of eight millimeters in a two or three miles' race. Reuter's Special.

The Chinese athletic delegation will be received with appropriate ceremonies this morning. The reception and entertainment committee of the Philippine Amateur Athletic Federation, press representatives, Chinese consular officials.

Chinese sportsmen and leading Filipino citizens of this city will be at Pier 1 to receive the Chinese athletes and their coaches. Bands of music, will also be there to lend more colour to the occasion.

Upon their arrival, the Chinese athletes will board decorated automobiles and autobuses and will parade around the city, making important calls on the government dignitaries of this land. They will then go on a sightseeing tour of the important sections of this city.

The Japanese athletes soon after their arrival here yesterday made preparations for their training. The Japanese baseball players went into practice at the Rizal baseball stadium in the afternoon while the other members of the delegation rested, presumably to drive away the effects of a long sea-voyage.

All Will Be Feted

During the stay here of the foreign athletes they will be lionized at various receptions and parties planned by their countrymen and the Filipino community. Their stay here will be made as enjoyable as possible and everything is being done to please them.

yesterday he was much pleased with the arrival of the Japanese athletes who will take part in the Far Eastern Games, which will open in Manila next Saturday.

All the athletes look healthy and ready for the games, Consul Kimura said. He added the young Japanese were very much pleased with this opportunity afforded them to visit Manila. They are impressed with the beauty of the city, its old and modern buildings, the cleanliness of its streets and the green foliage noticeable everywhere.

Mr. Kimura headed the Japanese committee which went to the pier yesterday morning to welcome the athletes. He accompanied the delegation on its official calls made immediately after arrival yesterday morning. As the calls were made the delegation staged a parade at the same time. It was greeted everywhere it appeared, especially by groups of Japanese who carried American, Filipino and Japanese flags, which they waved at the athletes.

TO ABOLISH CHENPING SILVER

Manchukuo's Latest Step

The Department of Finance issued a Department notice under the date of April 20, 1934, 1st year of Kangte, announcing the decision of the Government to undertake the redemption of Cheeping silver, the silver ingot currency which still enjoys a limited circulation in the Antung district, in line with its programme to unify and stabilize the currency situation in this country. According to the notice all commercial transactions in terms of Cheeping silver will be forbidden after September 30, 1934, and the silver ingots will be brought up by the Central Bank of Manchou at the officially fixed rate of 100 yuan of the new Manchoukuo currency for 70.2 taels of the former up to December 31, 1934. The public assaying office for the Cheeping silver currency known as the Antung Kungkuo, moreover, will be closed after April 30, 1934, by order of the Government for the purpose of expediting the change from Cheeping silver to the Manchoukuo currency.

Legally the circulation of Cheeping silver has been forbidden since July 1, 1932, under the provisions of the Regulation Governing the Adjustment of Old Currencies (Ordinance No. 38, June 28, 1932) but the Regulation insofar as it affects Cheeping silver was not immediately enforced because of circumstances, internal and external, existing at the time of the establishment of the new regime. Among them was the fact that the foundation of the nation in those days still lacked solidarity. The Government consequently feared that any drastic measures to regulate the currency at such a time might cause a serious financial disturbance in the Antung district.

Situation Changed.

The situation to-day, however, is greatly changed. With the growing solidarity of the new State, the people have come to place full confidence in the new Government and its central financial institution, the Central Bank of Manchou, which is reflected in the remarkable success which the Government has achieved in reforming the currency situation and establishing a uniform and stabilized national currency in every part of the country.

These encouraging changes and the fact that the Cheeping silver currency recently has been often subject to fluctuations owing to speculative activities and rumours of "various sorts" prompted the Government to make the present decision. Abolition of Cheeping silver and its replacement by the Manchoukuo currency will not only stabilize the financial situation in the Antung district, but will also be another step toward the goal of currency unification.

In connection with the present currency reform, the Government announces that it is prepared to grant possible financial assistance to the Antung district. It, therefore, hopes that the financiers, business men and the general public of Antung will continue to place their confidence in the Government and co-operate with it in putting through the reform project.

The success of the new administrative currency unification programme may be seen from the fact that already 82 per cent of the depreciated paper notes of the former banks under the control of the old Northeastern Government have been withdrawn from circulation through the agency of the Central Bank of Manchou. Furthermore, the greater half of some 100 different varieties of the "asutah" or privately issued bearer notes found in more than 60 haishen in Manchuria have been redeemed in exchange for new Manchoukuo notes. The adjustment of the Kuoliyin system of transfer based on Yingping silver, a local currency of limited circulation in the Yingkow (Newchwang) district, which is one of the latest tasks undertaken in the currency unification programme, has also been completed.

Round Coins.

Cheeping silver and another minor currency known as the "Hsiao-yangghien," which consists of round silver coins of small denominations, are to-day the only two old forms of currency still enjoying a limited local circulation. The former, as mentioned in the foregoing, will be abolished within

THE FAR EAST

Japan's View Again Outlined

Iwak, Japan, May 1.

Tokyo: Regarding the results of the recent interviews between the British and American Ambassadors and the Foreign Minister, Mr. Hirota, concerning the unofficial statement by a Foreign Office official on April 17, the Foreign Office has issued a statement saying that Mr. Hirota, in his interview with the British Ambassador, emphasized the point that if only in view of her geographical position, Japan of all the Powers has naturally the greatest concern, incomparable to that of any Powers distantly situated, for the maintenance of peace, and order in East Asia.

Later he furnished the Ambassador with the gist of the explanation made by the spokesman about his statement clarifying Japan's position, which has been delivered to the American Ambassador. Both the British and American Ambassadors were assured by Mr. Hirota that Japan scrupulously observes all the existing treaties and subscribes to the principles of the open door and equal opportunity, and sincerely desires the preservation of the territorial integrity of China.

However, Japan cannot remain indifferent to anyone's taking action under any pretext which is prejudicial to the maintenance of law and order in East Asia for which she, if only in view of her geographical position, has the most vital concern. Consequently she cannot afford to have questions of China exploited by any third party for the execution of a selfish policy which does not take into consideration the above circumstances.

REV. HOWARD SMITH KIDNAPPED

Outrage in Szechuan

Shanghai, May 12.

A report has been received at Shanghai that the Rev. Howard Smith, of the Church Missionary Society at Penghsien, Szechuan Province, has been kidnapped by Communists.

The Rev. Smith is an American from Washington, Pennsylvania, and it is believed that he was stationed at Peking at one time. Reuter.

N.R.A. ABANDONS THE "LITTLE FELLOWS"

Washington, May 12. Declaring that he is not inclined to "fool with them any longer" the National Recovery Administrator, General Hugh Johnson to-day announced the abandonment of the "little fellows" under the N.R.A.

Industries representing 15 per cent. of the recovery programme have been taken up 85 per cent. of the N.R.A. effort and funds. General Johnson explained that such small manufacturers as wished might be worked in the remaining Codes.

There has been tremendous criticism against the imposition of penalties on little people like an aged tailor at Jersey City, who has been imprisoned twice for reducing the price of mending four cents below the N.R.A. scheduled price. Reuter.

U.S. RECOVERY FUND APPROPRIATION

Washington, May 12. President Roosevelt and his immediate assistants have agreed to a supplementary appropriation measure for $132,000,000 for general recovery funds, instead of $1,500,000,000, as previously contemplated.

President Roosevelt, in order to secure a balanced Budget has decided that the extra appropriations, hitherto voted by Congress must be debited to this fund. Reuter.

this year. As regards the latter the Government is intending to devise appropriate measures for its withdrawal in the near future. Its regulation is somewhat complicated as the currency is circulating in the Antung district, as well as in districts adjacent to and in the Kwangtung Leased Territory.

BERLIN SHARE MARKET

No Substantial Improvement

Berlin, May 12.

For the same reasons as before, the sharemarket continued dull, sellers being in the majority but the amount of stock coming forward was not great. No substantial improvement can be expected until the transfer conference, which will resume work on Tuesday next, closes. Fixed interest securities was the same, heavy prices sagging.

Call Money 4 to 4 1/2. Young Loan improved 1/2 to 9 1/2. Reichsbank down 1/2 to 149 1/2. Dyestuffs improved 1/2 to 132 1/2. Salzdetruth Potash jumped 2 to 144 1/2. German Steel Trusts dropped 3/8 to 40 1/2. German Mineral Oils 1/8 weaker to 113 1/2. Siemenshalske rose 1/2 to 131 1/2. Bemberg Rayon went up to 67 1/2.

The sharemarket opened on Monday more optimistic in tone because the general opinion being that the transfer conference was proceeding towards a satisfactory close, this belief arising from an official statement made by the President of the conference, Leon Fraser. Fixed interest securities was likewise firmer. In reality, the business done was small in volume, supply and demand continuing about equal. The buoyant feeling disappeared on Wednesday when the Reichsbank return showed a still further loss of gold and a decline in percentage of note-cover. Towards the weekend, after the Ascension day holiday, both markets were calm, no great improvement being expected until after the transfer conference closes its labours. Transocean Kuo Min.

NEW INDUSTRY

Billiard Tables At Half The Import Price

Singapore, May 5. A new Malayan industry has just been started which promises to become a flourishing trade once it has been established.

Mr. J. R. McLeod, till recently Building Inspector in the F.M.S. Railways, announces that he is prepared to make billiard tables at half the cost of the imported article.

Asked if he thought there would be a demand for locally made billiard tables, Mr. McLeod replied that he had been experimenting on them for five years and had, in the course of inquiries, found that tables slightly smaller than regulation size were much in favour in Malaya. He constructed one for himself and those who had played on it were so satisfied that most of them had placed orders with him.

Except for the glazed laminated bed and the green cloth, all the other materials used in the manufacture of these tables are obtained locally.

HARRIMAN'S REPORT

Of The Share Market

The market was again featureless during the week under review and except for a little activity in Ewos which relieved the monotony somewhat there is little of note to report except that the demand for investment counters continued unabated, consequently prices in this section were generally higher with Hong Kong Trams in demand at $21.40, Star Ferries at $98 1/2, Hong Kong Electric at $73 1/2, Telephone (old) at $24 1/2, and Wharves at $102 1/2. Hong Kong Lands, however, were neglected and were nominal at $61. Sterling issues were slightly easier on account of the recovery in exchange, Hong Kong Banks having been put through at $1870/85, closing in demand at $1855. Unions closed with sellers at $280. Among the minor issues Providents (old) improved slightly with buyers at $1.95. China Lights (old) remained steady around $9.00 for cash and forward deliveries. Cements opened with buyers at $2 1/2, but later eased to a selling rate of $2.45. Hotels were steady at $5.90. Underwriters had buyers at $1.40, with sellers asking $1.50. Ewos recovered from $911.05 to $911.50 and provided a fair turnover. The tone of the market at the close is quiet.

Business during the week has been done at the following prices:—

H. K. Banks $1,870/85
Hong Kong Trams $21.15/21 1/2
China Lights (old) $9.05
Hong Kong Electric $73 1/2
Hong Kong Telephone $24.00
Dairy Farms $29 1/2
Hong Kong Hotels $5.95

Lane Crawford $4.00
Antamoks $5/70 cents

The latest Cotton prices to hand are those of the 10th inst:—
American Mid. "Spot" 6.13d.
Egyptian Sakel F.G.F. "Spot" 8.48d.

Woollens

Although forward business continues to be hampered by exchange fluctuations, some orders are reported to have been placed in Wool Veneers and Meltons. Japanese Woollens are reported to be entering this market on a larger scale, particularly in Serges and Gabardines. Prices for the Japanese cloths are considerably lower than those from England and the Continent.
